

Round Table

A Critical Analysis of Statistical Sources for Italian 20th-Century Economic History

Monday, January 18, 2010

14.00-19.00

Ca' Foscari, DSE, Sala Riunioni

PROGRAM

- 14.00 Giovanni Favero (U. Ca' Foscari)
Presentation of the Research Project.
- 14.10 Simone Misiani (U. Teramo), Fabio Lavista (U. Bocconi)
Public and Private Quantitative Research in 20th-Century Italy
- 14.50 Francesco Cassata (U. Torino)
The Italian Business Cycle (1881-1913) in the Vision of Luigi Einaudi and the Turin School of Economics
- 15.30 Manfredi Alberti (U. Firenze)
Unemployment Statistics before WWI
- 15.50 Coffee Break
- 16.10 Giovanni Favero (U. Ca' Foscari)
The Statistics of Industrial Wages in Fascist Italy
- 16.50 Roberto Tolaini (U. Genova)
Italian Peasants and their Families during the Thirties: Inea's Surveys between "Ruralismo" and Modernization.
- 17.30 Sandro Rinauro (U. Milano),
Emigration Statistics after WWII
- 18.10 Alberto Baffigi (Banca d'Italia)
Giorgio Mortara: Statistics and Economics
- 18.50 Closing Remarks

For further information:

Giovanni Favero (gfavero@unive.it)

